Teaching course name and code: TERRORISM AND ORGANIZED CRIME
Teacher: Professor Zoran O. Dragišić, Ph.D.
Status: Obligatory course / professional-applicative (PA)
ECTS: 6.0
Requirements:
Teaching course objective: The main objective of the course is acquiring knowledge on terrorism as an asymmetric form of warfare and as a strategy that various political and other movements use through the entire history of human society. The specific objective of studying this subject is reflected in the need for students to acquire the necessary knowledge of the concept of organized crime and the link between organized crime and terrorism. Additionally, it is essential that students perceive basic forms of modern organized crime and understand its security dimension. Since contemporary organized crime also represents a kind of political strategy, this, in addition to criminological, gives it a security dimension, too.
Teaching course outcome: Developed knowledge and attitudes on the issues of terrorism and organized crime. Ability to independently produce a security assessment of a terrorist threat and the security threat posed by organized crime.
